SAN DIEGO PUBLIC LIBRARY'S FRIDAY TALKING PICTURES FILM SERIES SCREENS FOUR FILMS BY JIM JARMUSCH

Indy Film Icon and His Minimalist/Idiosyncratic Vision

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library will screen films from filmmaker Jim Jarmusch every Friday in May at 2:30 p.m. in the 3rd floor auditorium of the Central Library, located at 820 E Street in downtown San Diego. Friday Talking Pictures is a world-spanning celebration of contemporary and classic cinema viewed on a wide silver screen. Audience discussions will oftentimes follow the screenings. These events are FREE and open to the public.

- May 4th – Down by Law – Three men in a Louisiana Prison make an escape.
- May 11th – Night on Earth – An anthology of five different cab drivers in five American and European cities and their fares on the same night.
- May 18th – Dead Man – On the run after murdering a man, accountant William Blake begins a journey into the spiritual world.
- May 25th – The Limits of Control – The story of a mysterious loner, a stranger in the process of completing a criminal job.
